George Monroe Gross, Jr.

Hackberry, LA - Funeral services will be held on Saturday, November 25, 2017 at a 1:00 pm Mass of Christian Burial at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Rayne, LA for George Monroe Gross, Jr., 62, who died Sunday, November 19, 2017 in Texas.

Interment will be in the St. Joseph Cemetery #2 in Rayne, LA.

Rev. Christopher Cambre Associate Pastor of St. Joseph Catholic Church in Rayne, LA will be the Celebrant of the Funeral Mass and will conduct the funeral services.

George, Georgie, George Jr., Parrain, dad, honey, father, friend, husband, uncle George, bubba, brother, brother-in-law, so many names to describe one man. A confident man that never met a stranger he stood firm in all his beliefs and nurtured everyone from friends and family, pets, and plants and people he just met. There aren't enough words to describe him. He had this smile that lights up a room, a commanding presence that was so gentle and kind. This man could plant a stick and make it grow into a fig tree, oh and let us not forget the purple wondering jew. I bet Jody still has a pot of it somewhere. George had so many special qualities and gifts he has passed on to his children, he was so proud of his children and held them above all and so many others. You never left the house hungry or without some bit of knowledge about life and family. George really loved spending time with friends and family, cooking, hunting, and fishing. George was a man who was so many things to so many and meant so much to us all. The only name that seems fit now is Angel as he sits to right of our Heavenly Father.

“ Georgie was my best friend growing up in Rayne. He & I worked, hunted, played on hay stacks, and just had fun on my father’s farm. The best was Crawfish boils on Good Friday listening to Uncle Clyde’s jokes. He made weekends on the farm special and everyone he touched in his life will miss him.

“ Another angel has gone to meet Jesus. Living in Hackberry for 20 years, shrimping, crabbing, oystering & fishing, was some of the memorable times of our lives. With George living across the street, was a treat. We would get off the boat, and smell the pit going. George's love of cooking & making sure anyone was welcome at his table, was his trade mark. He was always so nice & respectful to us. He's the kind of neighbor everyone wishes for. He will truly be missed. Our deepest sympathies. AJ & Sharon Elkins
