I met Alex in the early 1960's when he was dating my best friend Berna {we were in college together}. I served at their wedding and then I moved to Ohio. Stopped in to see them often on my visits back to Louisiana. Alex called me to let me know that Berna was in the nursing home and would probably never be able to talk with me over the phone, that was a sad day. I pray for both of them. I hope someone will let me know when Berna goes to heaven to be with Alex. Laura Mills at irmills330@gmail.com

“ I met Mr. Menard about 1 1/2 years ago, at Landmark. My mother was placed there. He was the first face I saw. He made sure I knew that my mother was being well taken care of. Everytime I went to visit, he was there and always had a kind word for me. I really miss seeing him on a daily basis. RIP Mr. Menard

“ So sorry to hear about Alex’s passing. I worked with Alex at security insurance. As we used to say that was a good old days . he was a man that was always willing to help anybody out as they say. I think he would’ve gave the shirt off of his back. Rest in my friend you will be deeply missed.
