“ To the Gautreaux family: I am so sorry and my heart is hurting as I type this. I worked for Allen and Raymond at The Last Round-Up and will never forget this man for giving me a job that I loved. The memories of working for him and how incredibly kind he was will stay with me forever. Allen Gautreaux, I am going to miss you wit, sense of humor, kindheartedness, your laugh and the list is too long for this post. We will see each other again. To the Gautreaux family, I am so sorry and my blessings and prayers are going your way.

“ 40 years ago this week "Tiny", as we called him, bought us a baby gift...a brand new baby bed for our first born! He and CJ worked together for many years and of course he was our "running buddy". We still think and talk about him every time we are in Duson.
What a kind, gentle soul. RIP old friend.
