“ I worked with Allen a few years ago and we became good friends. I got the news a few days ago and it saddens me that the world lost such a good person. He would give you the shirt off of his back. You will be missed buddy....

You were always there for us and for that I'm forever grateful ❤️ Sucks to see you go so soon. I remember the last time I saw you and it was karaoke night and you said I sounded better than my mama lol. And we danced together. I'll Cheerio that last dance we had together forever. I love you Allen. Rest In Peace old man 💜

“ Allen helped me get back into the karaoke business. Years ago, he used to come into a small bar where I was playing. I encouraged everyone to get up and sing and when he did, wow, it was angelic. Rest in peace, Allen. Thank you for your encouragement and wise words. Godspeed💕
