“ Briggs Family,

Some of my first memories growing up are of Amanda babysitting Bennett and I. I remember sitting in your living room as she and Ricky did their treatments. One of my favorite memories of Amanda is when she locked Bennett and I in our dog kennel and laughed while we barked at her and then wanted out. The earth has lost one of its most precious angels. I'm only glad that I was able to spend some of my earliest times with such a wonderful person. My prayers are with you in this hard time. I wish more than anything I could have made it to the service!

“ I am writing this with tears in my eyes as I think of your sorrow for your loss. Although, loss is not the correct word! Amanda is NOT lost. She is with her Jesus. And while we celebrate her total health now, we grieve because she is no longer with us. We will see her again when we, too, go to be with our Lord and Savior, Christ Jesus. Our love and prayers are with you all. I wish I was there to give you a big hug. Clara Hanes and Family

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. What wonderful parents you have been to dear Amanda. I remember that beautiful smile and outgoing personality when I would see her in the neighborhood growing up. She was so brave and full of life no one would guess she had an illness. Now she is well and with Jesus.

“ To the Briggs Family:

Even though I never met Amanda, her goodness and strength was made very clear to me through the discussions with you, Ricky. There is nothing that can remove the pain of losing a child, but to know that people that knew her, and even those of us who did not know her directly, cared for her and you all as a family may lessen the pain in some small way.

I think of you all frequently and know that you were very blessed to have Amanda in your lives for 27 years.

“ Sonya, Ricky and Ricky (Jr), you and your family are in our prayers. Although it has been many years since I've seen y'all, I have thought of your family often and I consider myself blessed to have gotten to know y'all. My heart is heavy for those she left behind, yet rejoices for Amanda as she will breath freely among our Lord and all the angels and saints.

The picture she colored for the pharmacy is at home with me. I will cherish it always. God bless your family and it is good to know she is resting in the Lords arms today.

“ Amanda's beautiful spirit will never be forgotten. She fought the greatest fight of her life with your support and love. God has presented her the ultimate prize, her eternal resting place with our Father. There is no more pain, suffering, struggles... God sent his only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. John 3:16

“ My sincere condolences go out to Sonya, Ricky, Ms. Joyce, Mr. Dalford and the rest of the Alleman and Briggs family. Amanda was a awesome example of courage and faith. She was an asset to the St. Joseph Edge Core Team, but the thing I enjoyed most was to watch the joy it brought her because she was able to be part of the team. The kids loved her and the Core Team enjoyed working with her. I am in Georgia at my daughters and will not be able to make the service but I want you all to know that you are in my prayers and thoughts. I so like the scripture chosen for her. She has fought the fight and now is reaping her rewards with both Jesus and her heavenly Mother.
