“ It seems like yesterday at St. Michael's and then Notre Dame that we grew up together in Crowley. Arlise was such a “good hearted” person. She always had kindness that she emitted. I know she struggled and had some challenges. Arlise is with God now in heaven where she is perfect and knows how loved she is and was. It has been many years but these are my memories of the dear friend I knew many years ago. Love you Arlise and grateful you were part of my life. I send love to Arlise's family. Such fond memories❤️

“ My name is Alan Gielen, and I am Arlise’s second cousin.

I remember once being at Arlise’s house when I was around 10 or 11. Arlise and I were the same age. We were in the front yard playing and she tackled me! She hit me hard! I think I said something derogatory about her being a girl?

We started wrestling. She was as strong as any boy I had ever wrestled and I had to put away the idea that I couldn’t be rough. She was a bit bigger than me and very strong. I had to fight hard!

Thank goodness I had wrestling experience with my big brother Jimmy. I needed it. We went on for a least 15 minutes, and she wouldn’t stop. There was no anger, or ill intent, she just wanted to prove herself.

We were both getting exhausted. She was trying to pin me but luckily I got her first. I held her in submission, until she surrendered. It was my experience and not my strength that gave me the temporary upper hand!

I never underestimated Arlise, or girls for that matter, again! We became even closer after that.

I am sad that our paths took us in different directions. I loved Arlise and enjoyed being around her. She could be herself around me and she shared many of her deepest thoughts, pains, and concerns over the years. She was a great friend and cousin.

Rest In Peace Cousin Arlise!

God Bless You.
