“ Jeanette and family, Cynthia and I express our sympathy and sadness about the passing of Norman.
We are sorry especially for not going by to visit with him because we thought so fondly of you both.
All his cousins( as young girls] thought he was the greatest. He always had time to interact with them even though he was a little older and they loved him for it.
May He Rest In Peace with God, until we all get to meet in the next life.
God Bless you and the family

“ My sincerest sympathies and condolences to all the families for their loss that we too share. Norman and Wayne and I grew up together many years ago. My deep regret is that I was not able to visit with him and Jeanette. Glenda and I send much love and prayers. We look forward to reuniting with him in the near future. John Hancel & Glenda Marcel
