“ Todd and Trahan family,

Todd I was so sorry to read about your fathers passing last week. I was out of town and unable to pay my respects.

I have very fond memories about bar b q's in the Trahan's back yard years ago but especially your dads pleasure in getting me to eat deer for the first time telling me it was a pork chop.

Please know that I will be praying for you and your family.

“ I am writing to express my deepest condolences at this time. I also wanted to share these scriptures that I often find to be encouraging. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4 reminds us that through prayer 'the God of all comfort, comforts us in all our tribulation', and 1 Peter 5:7 tells us to 'throw all of your anxiety upon him [God], because he cares for you.' Please feel free to visit www.watchtower.org for more encouraging thoughts and scriptures. Your family has my sincere sympathy.

“ My sympathy goes out to the Trahan family. Beldon and I worked together at Pipe Line Safety. When I went to work with PLS, Beldon is the one who trained me. He was the one who guided me during the inspections. Without Beldon I would'n have learned so quickly. I know he is going meet his master and you never can tell. maybe there is some pipelines up there.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Ms. Simmons

“ Paul and Peggy, Todd and Sue, and all the Trahan family:

My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time. Trust me, I know the pain you have in your hearts. But we always need to remember that they are in a much better place. No more pain, no more suffering, and with his wife again. Just think of all the happy cajuns up there looking down of us. If you need anything do not hesitate to call.

“ Dear Todd and Trahan Family,
Nancy and I wish to express our condolences to you and the family.
We wish to express what a fine man Beldon was to have such a LARGE and extended family. so many grandchildren and great grandchildren.
They are the quivers that show a man's favor with God.
We are praying for you and your family. He has gone "HOME" to has reward/payday. The wonderful aspect about being a Child of God, is KNOWING that soon we shall see our saved loved ones again- healed, whole and happy-forever!
We are here for you and if you need to step out of the familiar surrounding call me- 318-927-7837.
