“ Life will not be the same without this beautiful person here with us. She was absolutely the strongest person I've ever known. She was a wonderful grandmother to me and a wonderful great grandmother to my children. I am so happy my daughter and son were able to know her. I have so many beautiful memories of her, like when she'd let me water the plants on her front porch, help her in her garden, or going with her to the store when I was a little kid. But there is no greater memory than sitting beside her while she was sewing just watching her and talking. Those memories I will treasure forever. Goodbye my sweet MaMom I will love you forever!

“ My most sincere sympathy to Linda, Alvin, the Faul Family, ALL of Ms. Credeur's children and families. During her illness, I had been praying for her and all of you, because I know how difficult that is on a family. Now I will pray that God will provide each of you the strength and faith needed to get through her passing. Sorry I couldn't go to the wake or funeral, too many frozen bridges between here and Rayne.
