Being a Romeros a curse and a privilege isn't it? You've told me this since I was a child I haven't truly understood this until very recently. I've played the role as you've taught me Brother, I think this family is closer than ever to our goal. Thanks for protecting me. These vultures are just as you warned me

“ I was in Crowley for Christmas and I saw the monument (located in front of the PD's office) dedicated to the memory of their heroes who gave their lives in the line of duty. I just want to let know that I have thoughts for you, your family and co-workers. Rest in peace ptn Byron Romero - simply a brother in blue from Belgium (EU)

“ Happy Belated Heavenly Father's Day brother! My how time flies ~ in less than 2 months it will be 3 years since you've left your Earthly dwelling, as God brought you Home. Majority of the time I speak of you in every conversation ~ sharing some stories of yester years. Knowing that God has our entire lives written in stone before we're even born, doesn't make it easier accepting the tremendous loss & heartache that hasn't yet healed from your unexpected death! Thank You for always being the best big brother to me! And please continue watching over all of us. Til we meet again.....
I Love You to HEAVEN and Back....

Always,
"Bern"

“ To my BIG Brother Byron,
It's almost been a week since God called you Home- yet, in ways it feels much longer! You were the eldest of the five of us, the one that would always try to keep us all in line. Ever since I was a little bratty sister, I've always looked up to you (Mary & I would wear you and Ricky's clothes and boots or trackers- tennis shoes). I wanted to be just like you! The deep bond that we shared can't be broken... not even in death! As you & others know, I could write a "novel" to share my thoughts and memories about you.... but I'm not going to. I just want the world to know how much I will ALWAYS love you, and how proud and Blessed I am to be one of your little sisters! When you passed away, you took part of me with you. Fly high BIG BROTHER and may your sweet soul as well as our many other loved ones souls rest in Eternal Peace and Happiness!
Til we meet again.....
I Love YOU from HERE to HEAVEN🙏🙏,
Bern

“ My prayers, condolences, & heart goes out to all of you. I met Byron through my now deceased husband Chris Stevens when they worked together at the Scott Police Department. Byron was a wonderful friend & always knew how to brighten a room. I'm sorry I couldn't be there to pay my last respect to him (I live in Lake Charles) & I pray that God will comfort all of you. It's still hard to believe that he is gone but truly never will be forgotten. RIP BYRON 😭

Byron was the officer that would give his all to everyone, especially his brother/sister officers. Rest in peace my friend. 14tan 10-7 10-42 Heaven.

“ When we were both at Scott PD, he would tell me I was his favorite secretary. Of course, I was the only secretary, but I always appreciated the thought. He would then call me "Inez" -- a nickname I somehow acquired. He had that special talent a police officer needs to talk to people on the street. I could always tell when he was a little aggravated. He would take a moment, spit on the ground, then go right back handling the problem he was presented with. He was the best street officer I ever knew. Looking at his face on this page makes my heart break. Oh yes, Byron, you will be missed.

“ First our deepest condolences to my sister in law Crystal and our niece Macklyn and nephew Nathen , and all of his family and Mother. The memory I have of Byron is when i met him and chrissy for the first time, and he wanted to make sure I would fit in by asking me questions about nascar, and music I listen to. His cooking and his humor. His love for his family and for his job. It was a great loss to us when we heard of his passing. So we won't say good bye we will say until we see you again. Fly high Byron R.I.P and we know you will always be watching over all of your loved ones.
