“ He was a good man. Glad to have known him. Have good memories of him when he lived in California. Katherine we send our deepest sympathies, prayers, and condolences to you and rest of the Hicks family. Katherine you did a great job of caring for him. He might be gone but he will always be in your heart. We wish we could been there for you but we will be there in spirit. Our doors are always open for you and we only a phone call away. Take care and we love you . Cody,Marie,Janelland Abigail

“ Eight years ago, Katheren and Chuck welcomed this prodigal cousin into their home. It became my blessing to become Chuck's friend. I can take that honor, because he never missed a chance to pick at me. We shared some fun times, and he was always there with sage advice. Rest in peace old friend.
