“ I loved reading the good memories people wrote about Uncle Conrad, I have so many, he was the fun Uncle, we had a blast and laughed so much when I was a child till adulthood, he taught me so much about our Catholic faith and I made Uncle Conrad godfather to my youngest Aiden. The stories he told was so funny, he taught me how to shot a snake down at the gully, when we played rodeo, uncle Conrad was always the bull lol, I loved going over, except for spending the night, he would wake very early and come where I was sleeping with a trumpet and would blow that and sing wake up little Susie lol I never wanted to go back but I did, but I started leaving and running home next door before Uncle Conrad woke, I loved picking mulberries with him and Aunt Marie, I usually had John Paul on my hip. I love you Uncle Conrad and the pain of losing you hurts bad. Till we meet again

“ Mr. Conrad was one of the volunteer leaders when I went through the RCIA program at St. Joseph's in Rayne. He was so very strong in his faith and made a mark on my faith formation without a doubt! I love being Catholic and his love of theology was inspiring to me. My sincere condolences to his family. May he rest in peace and may Our Lord wrap His arms around each of you during this difficult time.

“ When we were little, Conrad & I use to make mud pies at the back door of their house for the Angels. Now you have been called to make them in person. I will miss your smile, stories and the fact that you were there for me.
