“ My dear cousin! You will be missed by many of us. Your long journey has ended and I know God will give you good judgment someday. Sorry I can't see you again but I have a hubby with many long-lasting illnesses and most likely can never be left alone again...so until we meet again, know that we love you, your spouse and your children and those great grandchildren on down the line. And I surely will never forget those adorable siblings of yours and the many "fun" times we all had together...especially playing baseball on the farms. Hugs to all of my cousins and my loving thought and prayers are with all of you. And I can truly say that photo of you is how I always remembered you...great choice
