“ To the Landry Family: I was so sorry to hear of Mr. Nappy's death. May the memories of his 90 years sustain you through the loss of his presence. With my mom's recent death, I know that there are days when this will be very difficult, but please know that the prayers and love of family and friends can ease your sorrow. I'd like to think that he and my dad are playing cards with God, and my mom is serving them coffee (or better yet, a cold beer). Angie Faulk Wall
