“ Heaven received another angel, so blessed to call this guy my friend, he was special. I have so many memories of him, the first time I saw him after his brain surgery and seeing his scars when I was in the 3rd grade, the night he met Kammy at the skating rink, training his 1st birddog, driving 125 mph to school in the Camaro, 3am trips to the Donut Kitchen, the Hank Williams concert, the weekend in Lake Arthur, waking up at my house the morning his mom passed. RIP my friend your home.

“ Kammy, "Cot's Girls" and families: I'm saddened for your tremendous loss. T-Cot was a man you loved from the moment you met him. I pray that God will bring y'all His comfort and peace now and in the days to come. 🙏 RIP Cot. 🕊️

“ It was tragic to hear T-Cot asking God, WHY he couldn't have at least one of his parents (Mona, his mother OR T-Bob, his Dad) at their grave side. He's with both of them now! The only sad part of his death are his grand children and relatives who didn't get to see him LIVE like Jesus intends!

“ I always remember watching him as a little boy wearing his little shorts and black rubber boots "helping" Gary getting things ready for a service run. He was the most precious, busy little man.. He had such a sweet gentle nature. May he forever rest in peace.
