“ Tucked away in the book of Ecclesiastes 7:1 is the verse: A good name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day on one's birth. I try to keep this in mind when a loved one is put to rest. I can only imagine the peace and love Uncle Don is experiencing at this time. He will be dearly missed by all of us. May the peace of God rule in our hearts now and in the future. Love from the Springfield clan to all Uncle Don's family.

“ To Susie and the entire LeBlanc family:

We would like to offer our deepest sympathy in the loss of your father, Don. It is an honor to have been selected to provide the music for his Funeral service on Friday morning. We hope that in some way, our message in song will be of comfort to you all during this sad time in your lives. Know that you will all be in our thoughts and prayers in the coming months ahead. God will help you in this readjustment period. Trust in Him.

Don and Murlie were friends with my (my sister) Rose and Hayward Richard. I remember He and Hayward worked for the same company for many years. They were such nice people. May he rest in peace in the arms of Our Lord and Savior for all eternity.

In Sympathy,
