Our beloved Dorothy "Memaw" also affectionately known as "T-Dot", will be remembered for her creative talents of cooking, baking, and painting. She loved to cook with her beloved husband, Alex. Her children and grandchildren enjoyed her sweet dough pies, millionaire candy, fruit balls, candied pecans, coconut cake, cinnamon rolls, blackberry jelly, figs, and "the cake". Memaw took painting lessons for many years, and gifted her beautiful paintings to her children, grandchildren, family, and friends. As she traveled, she collected spoons and displayed them in her kitchen, along with dozens of tin cans.

She loved her family and gave so much to them. During the holidays, she put up her Charlie Brown Christmas tree, and every family member had their own engraved ornament that they will cherish forever. Her grandchildren will always remember playing with her legos, watching Wheel of Fortune, her cookie jars, and eating swiss rolls out of the fridge. Memaw also loved to spoil her great grandchildren with M&Ms and gummy bears every time they came to visit her at the Ellington. Memaw prayed the rosary every day and inspired her family with her faithfulness. We will remember so many things about memaw, but what we will remember most is all of the love she gave us.

Survivors include her four sons, Jeffery Paul Istre and spouse Wanda Istre, Kenneth Istre and spouse Andrea Istre, Ronnie Joseph Istre, Jerry Istre and spouse Laura Istre, one daughter, Josette Renee Istre LeBlanc and spouse Deacon Barry LeBlanc, eleven grandchildren, twenty-eight great grandchildren, two sisters, Gloria Boudreaux Deroussel and spouse Larry Deroussel, Florine Boudreaux Hollier, one brother, Phillip Boudreaux, Jr..
