“ To my wonderful loving dad who I miss so greatly, and think about everyday . I know you are in a better place now, and not suffering. You are talked about everyday, about the good times we all had together. I just wanted to let you know you are truly missed and loved. I know we will meet again. Love your son, Shad.

“ To the entire Mouton family. I am so sorry for your loss. Mr. Ed was a wonderful man, and loved by so many. He will never be forgotten and he will remain within each and everyone of you. He loved his family more than anything, and just try to remember during this difficult time that he is in a much better place and no longer suffering. If I can do anything please let me know, and may God give you all the comfort that you need to get through this difficult time.
