“ Was just reading the obituaries to my mother and was shocked to see Coy’s name and picture. So many fond memories of decades working with my Dad (Al) and countless get-togethers at our house, Arceneaux’s camp, and other places. Sincere condolences to the Wyatt and Columbia Gulf families from our family. We think of him whenever we use the gumbo pot he and Estelle gave us as a wedding gift 36+ years ago. As others have said, a true gentleman.

“ We are so sorry at the loss of Coy; John has always remembered him fondly.
John now has some memory loss but remembers Coy well. We both are now in assisted care since last year and taking days one at a time. Our condolences to Coys wife and family and may God give you peace and the wonderful memories
Coy brought to you and all of us. John and Marie VanDyke
