“ Much too late as I am just sadly learning of his passing. Such a burst of light to everyone he came in contact with! Genuine and talented! He will be missed by many and he will forever hold a place in Swamp Pop annals along with his dear musician friends that went before him! Rest in Peace Boogas! May there be a place for you all to regather and continue your love of music!

“ *We were so sorry to hear the news of Boogas passing. I was very fortunate to have played with him with Bobby & the Rockers for years; great times & plenty of tales... all true!
Rest in peace.*

“ Sadly, Louisiana Swamp Pop tradition has lost another one of its legends. In the early 50’s, Boogas led the band, Bobby Page and the Riff Ruffs, playing at clubs, festivals, and dances throughout southwest Louisiana and Texas. He went on to record several local favorites such as “Loneliness” and “I Love My Baby”. For more than 30 years, he entertained audiences with his antics, outlandish outfits and “joie de vivre” as lead vocalist and trombonist with Bobby and the Rockers. He loved being on stage. He spread joy wherever he went. May God grant him eternal rest. Bobby and Irene Bourque

“ I've had the opportunity to work with Boogas when he was a trumpet player and vocalist for Bobby & The Rockers playing the double keyboards. His walk through this life is now complete and now has a new walk with our Savior in the spiritual realm. May my friend rest in peace.
