“ I only knew Mr. E.J. since January of this year, but what I can say about the last 9 months of knowing him is only a tip of the iceberg of how cool he was. His personality was one of a good man, kind hearted and compassionate. He explained to me parts of this life with such a great perspective, and wise reality from a life full of so many interesting experiences. E.J. would tell me about all the beautiful and fun places he would see on his rides, and told me what DILLIGAF was, lol! Nearly every day, he came into Cajun Fitness with a "Good morning, Raine!" message and a sweet smile along with the brightest of blue eyes... My most sincere condolences go towards his family and all of his friends, I wish we would have all had more time with E.J... I wish for him to have peace, riding his motorcycle forever in our hearts! Sincerely, Raine
