“ My dear sweet Momma...there isn't enough space to say all I want to about you. How blessed I have been to call you Momma. I am who I am today because of you. Your love for everyone ran so deep. You never met a stranger. So many lives have been touched by your love, compassion and unselfishness. I am proud to be your daughter. I am broken hearted, but at the same time I feel blessed and at peace, knowing you are reaping your heavenly reward for a life well spent and a job well done. Rest easy, Momma. Your job here is done. Much love to you and Daddy. I can't wait until we are reunited in the Kingdom of God, where there is no pain and suffering. I love you to Heaven and back, Momma. ❤️🙏

“ Ma became like a mom to me when I lost my mom. I cried many a tear on her shoulder. She was never to busy for me. She always had a smile for me. I miss going riding to get an ice cream and going to the park to sit, talk and eat it. She was my grandson's great grandma and boy did she love that little boy ! I was proud to say she was my friend. When she went to the store she never went in just to shop.she went to visit. If you went to the store with her you knew you were there for a while. She loved everyone. There was not a person she ever talked to who didn't get blessed. She was a mom to everybody. I will definitely miss her.but she is having the time of her life right now meeting her loved ones in heaven and being with the King of Kings her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
