“ I spent many days with Sister Rita and Brother in law Oday at the little house on the farm and enjoyed spending time with Flo when she was very young. A cute and vivacious girl, many happy memories there. Aunt Jo-Nell and I enjoyed a visit with her at the home a couple of years ago and found her as gracious as ever. Regretfully we are unable to attend the services due to her health issues. We send our heartfelt condolences to the entire family, I will go to a little chapel here in our little town and light a candle for her. Uncle Paul and Aunt Jo-Nell

Every time I had ever visited with Mrs .Flo , she always was very kind to me . She was always trying to figure a way for me when I told her my concerns , even though I knew she couldn't solve them . It was always nice to know that she cared . She will always be missed . Rest in peace my friend . 🌹
