“ She had a sternness about her but she was kind and a joy to have as a sub growing up. She regularly subbed throughout my middle school and high school years (2002-2010). I remember classmates asking for her when we knew we’d need a substitute. She always had a copy of an old test from the early 20th century and would read off the questions to us to see if we could answer them. Spoiler alert: none of us could. She clearly had a passion for educating and loved her students. We loved her, too. Though I’m sad about her loss, I smile knowing she’s going to meet so many up there who can actually pass her test and I know she’ll be smiling too. Rest easy, Mrs. Z.

“ I remember being in the Rayne High office 2020 right before school closed and overhearing a secretary asking Mrs. Z “Honey have you ever thought of retirement or just taking it slow?” And Mrs. Z laughed and said “Nope! I’m working til the good lord puts me down!” And she held true to her word. I loved Mrs. Z so much, enjoy your retirement! 💔💔💔💔
