“ I. Loved George and so did everyone we knew at the Silver Slipper Hotel and Casino. He knew everything about me and would always joke about my 7 daughters. 15 grand's and 2 great's and we always talked about going to Karaoke 🎤. Mark said he would go but only if George went. George and I were listening to the Moody Blues and we Sang along. George could sing and he had a beautiful voice and he was a beautiful person inside and out. As I don't have a car and the funeral is so far away I know he will be looking down from above. We love you George. RIP 🙏❤️🙏

“ My dear friend you will be truly missed...I enjoyed your infectious personality...so kind and thoughtful. He used to thank me for my smiles though he was the one who put them there. He loved joking around with my friends and me, and would try to stump us on a trivia type question every once in awhile. He would occasionally give us a good luck chip and say "Now you have to believe"....I admired his selflessness and always wanting to help...til we meet again my friend cause "I Do Believe "...RIP. Love you

“ Mr George you were an amazing man and friend. The first and only customer to ever tell me thank you for your smile. From day one you were a terrific friend. Always asking about how I am doing and my animals. You are very missed and it broke my heart to hear about your sudden passing. I know God has a special place for you in Heaven. Rest easy my friend.

“Gorgeous George. Man of God.very kind,generous, loving and loved to see people smile at him with him.he had a infectious spirit.very intelligent and educated.we are surely going to miss him.but never forget him. He would allways challenge you with trivia knowledge.he made me a millionaire (fake money)with his trivia.

“I know God has another rose in his garden because you are so beautiful, nice and kind to everyone you met. Your memory will live on my friend. You touch so many lives between The Silver Slipper and Hollywood weekly George.

You are so missing, so many people are so heartbroken once we all heard about your sudden death. I know I was on yesterday (9/12)when I got the sad news your passing. George you were so loved. Get your rest my friend.

To the family you have my deepest condolences. With love and sympathy.

May the gates of Heaven open up to reveal strength and comfort in your times of trial and sorrow. God Will Comfort You
R.I.P. George

“ My prayers and condolences to his family. He will be missed by many. If he didn't see me smiling, he would always say something to make me smile. Always asking if he could get me something while I was working. I'm going to miss seeing him pass by the front desk, and just talking to him. He treated everyone with kindness. Rest in peace Mr. George.

“ Mr George was always a pleasure to speak to. Such a friendly person, never had anything bad to say about anyone. I worked at a casino where he would play and he never got mad even when the cards were bad. He would come talk to me when I had no customers and he would tip us a little something just for talking and listening to his stories. Such a sweetheart, he will definitely be missed.
My prayers and condolences to Mr. George's family, may he Rest In Peace.
