“ I have several memories of Mr. Gerald, but they happened so long ago I don't remember all the details. Maybe Robin and Jodie can fill in the blanks. 😂

Memory #1 First of all not many people know that I used to live with Jenny and Gerald. Mrs. Jenny was afraid to stay by herself when Mr. Gerald was working away, Even though she had the girls there with her she felt safer with someone else there. Here's the memory Mr. Gerald had a horse, I can't remember it's name but I was terrified of it. He wanted me to ride it but I was too scared. He would tell me how gentle it was and he would be right there. One day I got brave enough to ride it and Mr. Gerald was right there just like he said he would. But then something startled the horse and it reared up throwing me onto the driveway. I could tell Mr. Gerald was very surprised that his horse had done that, but he was more concerned about me being hurt. He made sure I was ok then said you ready to get back on laughing as he said it. But of course I never got back on.

Memory #2 Mr. Gerald bought a 4-wheeler, he would take turns riding us teaching us how to drive it. He decided I was ready to drive it by myself, well that didn't go so well. I ended up driving it right into the house or the fence but I think it was the house causing damage to the 4-wheeler. Mr. Gerald says awe that's nothing.

Memory #3 My senior year of high school I received a call that my dad had died of a stroke at the age of 42. Because I was still in school I was able to receive Social Security from my dad. I wanted to buy a car with the money I received from my dad but I needed a Co-signer. Without hesitation Mr. Gerald said I will be your Co-signer. Because of his willingness and kind heart, I was able to buy my first car and pay for everything I needed for my Senior Graduation. That may not seem like much to some but it met the world to me.

Cindy, you were more like a sister than a safe keeper for my Mom. The horses name was called Tuesday if I recall because we have a picture of us in front of the horse.

I remember you running into the house. It was the Suzuki 2 wheel motorbike 😭 I'll never forget that . I know it's not funny sorry 😭 We only had the 3 wheeler and the 2 wheel.

My best memories was when me, you and Jodie listening to a Michael Jackson's song and we were crying over some boy that broke our heart 😭😭😭 Life was never dull

That's for sure when daddy was here. It was always an adventure when he was home from offshore. He loved y'all so much.
