A Southwest Louisiana Institute (ULL) graduate Gilbert was a devoted family man, respected chemist, entrepreneur, and deeply spiritual person whose life was guided by faith, generosity, and service to others. He attended St. Joseph Catholic High School before continuing his education at Southwest Louisiana Institute (ULL).

Gilbert built a distinguished career in the petroleum industry as a chemist, dedicating 30 years to Oil Center Research, where he became known for his innovation, hard work, and commitment to developing products that would benefit others throughout the industry. Following his successful career there, he founded Plusco in Houston TX, continuing his passion for creating solutions and advancing the field of Petroleum Oil Field service products which he loved.

Above all, Gilbert was known for his strong faith and love of God. A deeply spiritual man, he lived his life with kindness, humility, and compassion. He cared deeply for his family and friends and always was willing to give of himself to help others, consistently placing their needs before his own. His generosity, wisdom, and unwavering devotion to those he loved will be remembered always by all who knew him.

Mr. Gilbert served in the United States Air Force from 1955 to 1963 in the Korean Conflict as a Captain. He was a member of St. Leo IV Catholic Church and Holy Name Society, Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Scott, La. Gilbert was a loving husband, father, grandfather, brother, and uncle. He loved being with his family and sharing stories. He will be missed by his family and friends.
