“ I remember Gloria as she worked at the Rayne Branch Hospital when I worked there. Quiet and very sweet person. I will be unable to attend the wake and funeral but will keep her in my prayers. My Sympathy goes out to her family.

“ I met Gloria in 1967 after moving to Rayne and could not have asked for a better and more devoted friend. She was a fun loving and caring person that I made so memories with and will miss her so much. Time and different paths in life never separated our everlasting friendship. I know she is with God and the love of her life Donald Chaisson and watching over the second love of her life Casey Chaisson. Rest in Peace my dear friend.
