“ So sorry to hear about Gus. I didn't know him at all before he and Joe came to my house to do some plumbing work. In no time we were joking around like we'd known each other for years. My thoughts are with you, Joe, and all your loved ones. Peace.

“ So very sorry for your loss.
There are no words that will ease the pain you are going through right now.
Gus was such an amazing person and loved by so many.
The loss of someone you love is so very painful and believe me I feel your pain.
I know that Gus is in heaven with Ronnie and there's a lot of jokes, laughter and catching up going on between both of them.
May God comfort and hold you in the palm of his hand.
Sending Blessings and Love 🙏❤️🙏

“ Sending my condolences to you and the family! I have so many fond memories of Gus with his boat & he was also so excited to come and fish. He never failed to return without several chests full of red snapper & sharks. Oh those sharks! Smelled horrid when cleaning but he loved them. Always had a smile on his face and a good joke or story.

So sad to hear about Gus, especially to Joe. I know the two of you were very close. It is really rough when someone you love dies. Stay close to your family and friends. They will support you through this tough time.
