V.

“ May the Trahan family find comfort in your loving memories, and in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) While grief at the loss of Henry is great, joy at receiving him back in the resurrection will be greater. (Mark 5;42) With deepest sympathy,

“ I'm proud to have called Harry my brother-in-law. Many friends, co-workers and relatives were at his service in Fallon, showing the admiration and friendship there was for him there. He had a good life and I'm sure he will be sorely missed by the military community for the 50 years of expertise he brought to maintaining their aircraft. He was one of a kind. Remember he was a Vietnam vet. Fair winds and following seas Harry Lee. RIP, Linda

“ Please accept my sympathy in the painful loss of your dearly loved Harry Lee. He sounds like a very wonderful man who lived a life of service. He was loved by all who knew him and will be sorely missed May the following Bible Verses give you much comfort and hope.
Psalm36:7 "HOW PRECIOIS YOUR LOVING-KINDNESS IS O GOD! AND IN THE SHADOW OF YOUR WINGS THE SONS OF MEN THEMSELVES TAKE REFUGE"
