Mrs. Heather was so sweet to me..in middle school she was there to help me and my brother when it was needed and she never failed to help! Whenever I went through troubles she noticed and always asked what was wrong and chatted with me and she understood where I came from. She always put a smile on not just my face but everyone's letting us know that she will always be happy! I miss her so much! 😭

“ Heather was my best friend for the last 8 years. We spoke or texted every day. I had the joy of watching Alyssa and Gavin grow and she was a 2nd mother to my kids. I don't know what i am going to do without her but I know she is giving everyone heck up in heaven.

Oh Heather, My Girl... My first born niece. I cannot say enough about you other than how much of a treasure you were to this family. Always willing and ready to lend a hand no matter what it was. You always loved without expecting anything in return. But gosh what a great heart you had and now you are sharing it with Jesus. I love you from now until I see you again. Love Aunt Robin
