A permanent part of my childhood memories. Dad would often stop by with Mom and all of us unannounced of course (no cell phones back then). LOL. Mrs. Natalie would fix a pot of coffee and Dad just loved listening to Mr. Chick talk about and opine on world events. Dad loved him like an older brother and admired his greatness as a family man, fellow Paratrooper, and a man of integrity and honor. Prayers for the entire family. Jason E, Vidrine and family.

“ What a great man. We met often in the parking lot of the grocery store! He would always tell me stories about his days at Branch Elementary, especially in my mom’s class. Delia Marie Trahan Beagh was his 3rd grade teacher! My prayers to all of you.
