“ Jackie has been my sister-in-law for the past 58 years. She was the most agreeable and sweetest. We never had a cross word. Her hearing kept her somewhat isolated in conversations but she always had a smile on her face. We will all miss Aunt Jackie and know she is celebrating with all of our loved who have gone before us.

My prayers are with the family, My association with her family goes way back to my Aunt Alice who was her grandmother. I was Betty's age and knew her well.. I am Annette Sonnier from Scott. Jackie and I are cousins. I lived 3 houses down the street from her Uncle Jr. (Numa) I regret I couldn't attend the funeral to meet the family. May she rest in peace.
