Jaime Elisha Doucet

Interment will be in the Indian Bayou Community Cemetery in Rayne, LA.

Dr. James Pritchard with First Baptist Church in Lafayette, LA conduct the funeral services.

Jaime was a true woman in all her femininity, from her pink lipstick to her French-tipped nails. A lover of all things Marilyn Monroe, she carried a timeless beauty and glamour that reflected her spirit perfectly. Beyond her beauty was the wonderful mother underneath it all. To know Jaime was to love her. The impression she left on everyone she met was everlasting. When people think of Jaime, they think of happiness, laughter, and a beautiful soul. Her spirit was infectious down to her core, and above all, she never changed herself for anyone she was unapologetically and beautifully who she was.

Always devoted to God, her children, family, friends, and work life, Jaime spent seven years at Coastal Land Services as a petroleum landman, a career she truly loved along with the community she found within the office.

Anyone who knew Jaime knew how deeply she loved her children. She would have laid down her life for the people she loved and never asked for anything in return. Her presence touched countless hearts, and she will be profoundly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

May her legacy, love, and beautiful heart continue to inspire and strengthen those whose lives she touched.

Survivors include her four daughters, Alexis Klaire Meche, Aizlyn Rae Meche, Blakelyn Lane Meche, Baylee Elisha Meche, grandson, Roman James Arceneaux, her parents, Donald Doucet and Janice Thibodeaux Doucet, fiancé, Josh Lavergne, Josh's three children, Michael Lavergne, Avi Lavergne, Brantley Lavergne, sister, Meshee Doucet and spouse Richie Doucet, three nephews, Landon Doucet, Miles Doucet, Julien Doucet, niece, Ava Doucet, numerous aunts and uncles, numerous cousins.

She was preceded in death by maternal grandparents, Glenn Merton Thibodeaux and Marlene Faye Rita Bezett Thibodeaux, paternal grandparents, Emick Doucet, Sr. and Evelina Moreau Doucet, three cousins, Christy Doucet Alleman, Aaron Doucet, Luke LeBlanc.

Pallbearers will be Grant Arceneaux, Michael Lavergne, Jake Guidry, Miles Doucet, Landon Doucet, and Julien Doucet. Honorary pallbearer will be Brantley Lavergne.

“ Jamie was truly a special woman and I am so glad and blessed to have been able to become a friend and work associate. My life was made better just to have known her in the time I had. May God Bless her children and comfort them with her husband. If I could say anything to her it would be, Jamie you know your King, even Jesus who loved you and gave himself for you, and by His sacrifice you are healed now forevermore and you will be comforted in His presence and His rest.

Psalm 16:9-11

Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices; my body also will rest secure, because you will not abandon me to the realm of the dead, nor will you let your faithful one see decay.

You make known to me the path of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence, with eternal pleasures at your right hand.

“ Oh Jaime, this one is hard. I have prayed harder for you than I did for myself. I just knew you were going to beat this, I BELIEVED. But God's plans were bigger than our own. He did heal you, your body made whole. Just not your earthly body. I have loved you since the day you were born. I held you, rocked you, grew up with you (though I am older), made a lifetime of memories. Love just runs deep in our bones, our families bones. I am going to miss you more than you can possibly know. Until we see each other again, watch over all of us, especially your girls.

You made a lasting impression on me and our family being such a good friend to Brittany. I'll never forget how instrumental you were at Brittany's wedding. I could not have done without you. Lasting good memories with you. Brittany is going to miss her wonderful and devoted friend. You will be missed for now but reunited again at God's choosing.

“ I never thought that seeing Jaime at church in December would be the last time I could hug her. She told me that day that she had my back always, and I knew it was true. This will forever hurt very deeply as she was a wonderfully genuine, loyal, and kind person. I am so very sorry to everyone that her loss will affect as it is truly a monumental one. I pray for all who were close to her to find solace in knowing that she is no longer suffering and in paradise now.

Love,

Cousin Alison
