“Jamari McDade. I remember the first time I got to see your sweet little face. It was for home visits in the beginning of August. You saw me, waved, and then went run inside to hide from me. You made me giggle and I knew that you would be a character in the classroom. Over the course of the year I was able to watch your attitude change. It became more positive. You decided that you wanted to make honor roll. Together we worked so hard. I was so happy to tell you that succeeded that nine weeks. I loved how you wanted to make people happy. You never talked bad about anyone. I can tell you, though, you did talk a whole lot about being a brother and playing football. I remember giggling when you would tell stories. When you talked about how great of a football player you were, I remember thinking, my how little your hands are to catch a ball of that size. I want you to know that I am so very blessed to have been your teacher. I can recall your facial expressions, radiating smile, and contagious laugh. You brought me such joy. I hope that you are up there in heaven playing football and protecting anyone that needs you. Please continue to guide me so that I can be the beat teacher that I can be!!

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy in the painful loss of your dearly loved Jamari. When one so young is lost the sorrow is unimaginable and we need comfort and hope to help with our terrible grief. May the following Bible Verses help to strengthen you at this difficult time.

Rev21:4-5 "AND HE WILL WIPE OUT EVERY TEAR FROM THEIR EYES AND DEATH WILL BE NO MORE, NEITHER WILL MOURNING NOR OUTCRY NOR PAIN BE ANYMORE. THE FORMER THINGS HAVE PASSED AWAY"
