“ Jim and Sandra, I am so very sorry that the world has lost Jimmy. I didn't know him, but it certainly felt like I did after hearing the countless stories about him from Sandra who loved him just like she does Josh. She never made a difference between those two. He was loved so very much and was fortunate to have such awesome parents as you two. He loved his baby brother just as he did for his entire family. I don't know the pain of losing a child but can only imagine the pain. I will keep the Albers family in my thoughts & prayers. Hold tight to every memory of Jimmy and spoil that baby rotten. With my deepest condolences, Lisa King

“ Jimmy,
Always quick with a joke and full of wit. Friday night game nights will miss your presence, but know you're in a better place now.

“ Thank you, James, for making me smile every time I met you. Over the years, you & Amy were always very kind to me, and always spoke highly of me every place I worked. Not being from Louisiana, it was people like you who made me feel welcome. Thank you, James. You will be quite missed. ❤️ - Raine

“ I know he will be missed. As my trainer, he had the kindest of ways to push me to my limits. He was kind, strict, strong and was a very good listener. I made the mistake one day and told him I had ice cream for dessert the precious night. He made me push his car around the parking lot while tapping the brakes. He was laughing, I was grunting - All in good fun. My life will be changed for the better because I got to share time with him. Wishing all his family much love, comfort, strength and PEACE. 🙏

“ James,

It was so great to get to know you in our short time together while we did guitar lessons..

I remember the very first time you called in 2011 and it was like you were talking to me like you were my best friend - and we literally just met on the phone seconds ago!

Your passion for always "proving them wrong" about what is possible in life is absolutely inspiring. I wish more people had your spirit - I certainly learned as much from you as I hope you learned from me.

The truth is, the world took you way too early and I'm really torn up about it. It was crazy how similar you and I were - both in our worldview, interests and music. We could have been relatives for sure!

I will make it a point to share your story with the world - about how anything is possible (dude you learned how to play guitar when most folks said that would be nearly impossible for you!) That took guts and courage, but again...you proved them wrong.

You will be missed by your friends and family. I am lucky to count myself in that number - I will cherish our cool memories together for the rest of my life.

Goodbye, my friend, and may we meet in the next life. ;)
