“ Even tho I was too young to really know your brother I sure remember a lot of good memories shared by my siblings about him and all of you I did to get to know some of your grandchildren when I taught at Norte Dame and I was grateful for that Being a neighbor to Paulette's in-laws and then Paulette gave me a chance to know more and enjoy her friendship which extends to all of you. All I do know is that I am really grateful for my neighbors of long ago and to your brother for all of the support all of you gave us. My thoughts and many many prayers are w you at this time. I am sorry I am not at the funeral but k ow I am w you in spirit Love to all, Jacki Benedik (Wilma Robichaux)

“ Mr. Jerome was always so nice. When I fished a bunch I would bring all my reels to him to repair and maintain. They worked like brand new when he was done and I always enjoyed talking fishing with him. One of the men your are thankful that God put in your home town. The blessing of God's Presence be yours.
