“ John was my uncle. He was my dad's older brother. We called him Uncle Johnny, only later to realize it was actually John-E. I always admired his kind demeanor and his sense of humor. After serving his country in the U.S. Army with distinction in Europe, Uncle Johnny was instrumental as a leader and mentor to not only my dad but also to his other younger siblings after their father died in the 1960s. I know that my dad trusted and valued his advice very much. I remember my dad going see him on Sunday afternoons to get his newspapers and to visit with him. This time with his brother was very special to my dad.

I treasure my memories of going to Uncle Johnny and Aunt Barbara's for holidays and sometimes just for a weekend meal with them and their children. They were all always very warm and welcoming.

After my father died in 1993, my immediate family and I grew apart from Uncle Johnny and his family, but I will never forget the kindness and generosity he and they showed my family and I as a child.

I was very sad to hear of his passing. I wish him peace and I send my heartfelt sympathy and regrets to his family.

“ Ms.Barbara and family, I am so sorry for your loss. I worked with John in the early 90's at McDonalds. He taught me a lot! I remember I had lunch with him after he retired and he was so happy and relaxed!! He is fondly remembered and you are all in my prayers. Hilary Stumpf McKone
