“ I dont remember much of my aunt kasey as a child because they lived so far from us when I was young. I do remember however for some reason when she did visit I always had m&ms and she would take my blue ones and tell me they weren't good for me and for a while I didnt eat blue m&ms. I also remember that my sister and I used to fight alot which she hated and instead of whipping us or fussing she would make us hug it out. I regret not being closer to her. About a week before she earned her wings I had a great conversation with her. We laughed and made jokes about parenthood. She was trying to make me feel better because I'm worried about my new baby to come in december, which she did. We talked for a good while and had I known that would've been the last time I would've taken 5 more minutes to tell her i love her and that I'm sorry we weren't closer. I'll always hear her laugh ringing in my hears from that conversation and I will miss her very much.
