“ To the family of Karl (cotton) Campbell
I'm so very sorry for you'll lose. Cotton had a lot of good in him, he was very talented with a paint brush in his hand it saddens me to hear of his passing of what he was going threw the pain that he couldn't bare with himself. I know if he could say something to ease you'll from this heartbroken time of sorrow, he would say something like this to let you'll know that he's safe at home.
I needed to be saved from the misery & pain I was in so I called out to Jesus and he reached out and grabbed my hand and pulled me to his side & whispered you're know longer in pain,I will save you and you will know longer feel anything but joy & happiness. I want be alone I'll reunite with dad,mom, & Jody, so to my family & friends just know that my body's gone but my sprit will always be near. I love & miss you'll, till one day we'll meet up and be together for eternity. So go on take one day at a time and enjoy your life for its short on this earth.
May God be with Karl & his family, in Heaven & on Earth.
