“ So sorry for the family’s loss of this beautiful soul. I still remember meeting Kathy in Nan Eula’s living room, and my thoughts of her have only grown fonder over the years. May you all find peace in the memories and comfort with family.

“ Ray and Family, I'm heartbroken at this news. Kathy was a ray of sunshine and served as the glue that kept Mervine Kahn in place during the final years. She was an ambassador for all things Mervine Kahn, and she delivered a contagious enthusiasm for Rayne and Acadia Parish. She cheered for and encouraged me when others didn't see my value. I'm still in shock over this. Heaven has definitely gained an angel. Hope she is hugging my Dad right now. RIP sweet Kathy. Love and prayers, Laurie Jankower James

“ The most selfless and caring person you could ever hope to meet. Her beauty was genuinely inside as well as outside. She will be missed and never forgotten by so many people. Rayne lost an outstanding citizen and Ray lost his soulmate. May the family find strength and comfort in knowing Kathy will be at Heaven’s gates to greet them when their time comes 🙏🙏🙏
