“ To Pam and family. I am Betty Cormier's sister. Betty is not feeling well and could not get out to see LeeBertie. They were real close friends for a long time. She is very sorry for your loss. She love LeeBertie very much. Cindy and Bengie are in Mexico on a senior trip with their daughter, Heidi so they are unable to go to Services. My sisters all send their condolences.

“ LeeBirdie, we lived in the same neighborhood growing up. Saw you years ago and have not seen you since. Seems like everyone goes their separate way and don't see each other again and that is a shame. To the family my deepest sympathy for the lost of a very fine friend of years ago. Voorhies

“ WOW, it could only be confirmation from Heaven. Pam, just like I mentioned to you yesterday...I can only imagine the celebration Aunt LeeBirdie must be experiencing right now. Face to face with our Creator and two very missed sons. The thought made me smile as well. She always loved a good party. Our hearts and prayers are with you all. Father God, please hold them close to You. Comfort them and let them feel Your presents.
I love you,
Danielle

“ I will always cherish the moments we had growing up.
I will always remember the time we were neighbors at Rayne Villa' when I had my plate of delicious food every Tuesday night. I missed
Leberdie when I moved here' We both lost a son ' well her (2). Leberdie was a good friend. You are all in my prayers. I will really try to go tomorrow. I had tubes put in my ears and can't hear a tooth pulled (bad) now I have shingles. But I will go if I can. LOVE to All of you

“ It may sound kinda of insensitive to some for me to start by saying this, but what a glorious day it was yesterday. I can only imagine the celebration it must have been there in heaven, when Aunt LeeBirdie was reunited with Blake and Wayland, and everyone else and to see Jesus. Just like the songs says, "I can only imagine". It makes me smile when I think of it, just as she did when I would see her anywhere. I do know the sadness you are feeling, and if my hug was strong enough to take away your pain, I would start now and never stop. I hope the pain you all feel now in your heart is lightened by the love that surrounds you. I'm holding you all tight in my heart. Death is a heartache no one can heal, but Aunt LeeBirdie's love is a memory no one can steal. Although it's difficult today to see beyond your sorrow, may all your memories of her comfort you tomorrow. Cherish them in your heart, they are priceless treasures. Her life with you all is a story told by God. One last thing I want to share with you that I read once and loved how it made me feel when I needed it, "Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy" I love you all and I love you so much Aunt LeeBirdie. I will miss you, and thank you so much for being such a good friend to Moma. Please give my Daddy and all of our loved ones a big hug and kiss from me.
