“ Uncle Leroy was a wonderful presence in my life as a child and as an adult. He always had that beautiful smile on his face. My dad, Julius, preceded him in death at 99 years old. I can only hope to live as long! I'll always be grateful to him for the time he spent with my parents before they passed away. My condolences to everyone in his family. I know he will be greatly missed.

“ What can I say about Mr. Ogea. He was one of my Dad Raywood LeMaire’s good friends.

My dad loved him dearly. He visited with my dad several times the last few years of his life. Such a wonderful man and friend.

I’m haven’t seen him since 2017. I thought about him often.

My prayers and condolences to all of his family.

What a true blessing to have him for 98 years on this earth.

God Bless his journey to Heaven I know my Dad is there with Jesus and many many others to welcome him home.
