“Leslie was a pleasure to work with. She was hard to keep up with. She had so much energy. Always had stories to tell and make you laugh. End of shift she would have 4 to 5 cups of coffee with her red lipstick on them on the desk. She will be missed, but remembered with smiles .

“I am so saddened to hear of Leslie's passing. I met her about 26 years ago, when I was a brand new nurse just out of school. She was working labor and delivery at Dauterive Hospital, and I was on the med-surg unit. About 8 months into my brand new career, an opening became available in the labor and delivery department. She came to me one night, and encouraged me to apply, telling me that she thought I would do a great job there. I had never even considered working in this area, but I took a chance and applied anyway. I got the job, and 26 years later, I am still a labor and delivery nurse!! We had so many fun times, and I learned so much from her. She was definitely one of a kind, and I am blessed to have known her. I pray that you all have peace and comfort during this difficult time, and that Leslie is now resting in peace.

Sincerely,

“ So many memories, and crazy fun times.
Leslie, I will think of you often. You always cracked me up, especially when you and Stacy were together.

The two of you together were explosive. 😊❤️

All the different nick names and rituals we would find ourself in.
Leslie, you were one of the most authentic and real people I've ever known. You always seemed to face things head in.
Oh and could you tell some great stories.
I was looking forward to your trip out this way, coming this summer. I believe it's always good to have something or things to look forward to. And you did. Oh yea, and your Love of all critters.
When I first met you, you had a skunk. Your mom was pretty cool.
The closest I got to that with my parents was white rats.
Leslie, I was always Think of you fondly. So many good stories to reflect on for the rest of our lives. Love you, Barry

“ ok, let me do this right, as to not offend, remember some 45 yrs ago, i and stacie, one of her best friends, and his sister punkin, went on a journey, leslie and punkin had tripped the light fantastic, as it was said,i drove the "really wild" girls around most of the night, circa what 73, to parks, and we ended up what is now some bestial country western place, before you crossed the bridge to downtown tempe and mill ave. hippieland, there was a house that sat up on a hill,directly across the old ""childrens" hospital in distance THAT MY GRANDMOTHER AND HER FAMILY KNEW THE OWNERS!!, A TWO STORY BEAUTIFUL HOME,BACK WHEN THE SALT RIVER RAN YEAR ROUND, AND "HAYDENS" FERRY. anyway, as we approached it, we heard many guitars, and some maybe 40 or more hippie squaters were living there, ,we met,talked, "smoked" with them, a fresh water empty pool, and verdant garden circa 1900 onward they owned. beautiful wrought iron fences, and the view must have been staggering then, leslie and punkin in their ""exhaulted" states were mesmerized as i told them my grandmother clara alice moss and her family knew these wonderful people and swam in the ice cold pool up on that serene visionary hill with the two story huge mansion, long ago ""bulldozed" for some redneck country western place. leslie was always the fun and wild girl, that night there were some drunk offensive couple that passed by us at that home, leslie later said, ""DEFINATELY NOT FROM THE BEST OF FAMILIES"", we roared w laughter, she and i were there to help our friend stacie pass on to the glory that i know is there, having DIED three times in hospital from coumadin poisoning, THERE IS NO DEATH, this i know, visions i grasped of eternity, AND LESLIE, YOUR UP THERE IN GOD'S WORLDS, MANSIONS, MAKING PEOPLE LAUGH, AND GASP IN HUMOR YOU SWEET SEXY WILD WOMAN, I LOVE YOU FOREVER, AND WILL NO DOUBT TO HEAR YOU ""HERE HE IS, DEFINATELY NOT FROM THE BEST OF FAMILIES"" LOVE LOVE LOVE U

“ I have many memories of Leslie but to sum them up, she was incredibly bright, the funniest person I knew and had a heart as big as the universe.

She was real and genuine and if you asked her for her opinion by God she'd give it to you. If you needed help, she'd give it to you, and if you just needed someone to listen, she was there.

I adored her and considered myself privileged just to be her friend. I will never forget her and I'll always keep her in my heart.
