“ We've known the Jeffers for 30+ years. Sam and I have been able to spend several occasions together with them from celebrating Barbara and Kalen's wedding to Mitchell's high school graduation. Lloyd was such a bigger than life character with a commanding voice. He was a hard worker, family first, loved to travel and a man of Faith. We enjoyed every chance we got to spend with Lloyd and Faye and will treasure all the fun memories we have of our time together. Spending our thoughts and prayers to the Jeffers Family.
RIP Lloyd

“ We first met Lloyd when he came to Gig Harbor for Mitchell Jeffers was awarded his Eagle Scout Ranking. It became obvious that Lloyd never met a stranger, he treated you like a friend he had known for a long time. The last time we saw him was at Mitchell's High School Graduation party. The conversation between Lloyd and Frank Scelfo, Barbara's brother, fueled by just a tiny bit of alcohol, was heard from one end of the neighborhood to the other well into the night. This was the time Lloyd developed a taste for a red wine that he called Mer Lott, aka Merlot. It was a great weekend of fun, food and talk and a little Mer Lott mixed in. Please rest in Peace Lloyd.
