“ My goodness.....what a gentle, dear soul. I am soooo grateful and thankful for each of our visits. Her life was a testimony of the life Jesus wants us to live. Once, several years ago, when visiting her at the Guest Home, I began to get teary eyed. She saw what was happening, and in her calm, gentle way she leaned in toward me and asked me, "Is there something I can say to help you?" I will never forget that for as long as I live. It was as if Jesus was saying those words to me. I will miss my dear aunt. Millie Jan Carpenter Eads
