“ My heart is heavy. I met Mark in 2005 when I began working at probation and parole. Such a sweet person. He spoiled me immediately with walks to the nearby super 1for ice cream runs. He always had a smile for me, especially when assigning me work. I think the ice cream was actually bribes. He will truly be missed. The entire Beslin family has my deepest sympathy.~ Shantell Thorn

“ I've known Mark since High School at Notre Dame in Crowley - over 40 years. He was a good kid in school, always friendly, happy, and laughing. A real friendly guy. He grew up to be a good husband and father as well as a good provider for his family. I was heart-sick when I first heard of his illness over a year ago - that such a terrible thing could happen to someone so good. My sympathy goes out to his family. He was truly a great man and a good friend. A fighter until the end. He is missed more than just words can tell as all of society has lost a "better" part of itself. My prayers and best wishes to all who loved him.

“ For the life of me, I cannot remember a time when he wasn't smiling. When the kids said this to me, it made me smile too. We lived across from Mark and Renee for over 10 years. Allie's memories make her chuckle because he would buy what seemed to be 100 boxes of Girl Scout cookies from her. Nick remembered when he was trying to raise money to go on a trip and Mark let him clean all of his vehicles and they really didn't need much cleaning. Such a sweet and loving family. Prayers for strength and love for everyone touched by love.
