“ What a sweet and special person Martha was. I always enjoyed visiting with her and was always greeted with a kind word and a smiling face. She had a kindness about her that is not always seen in the crazy world we live in. To her family, rest assured knowing she had many open arms waiting for her upon her arrival in heaven.

Martha and I had long ago chosen to live in each others hearts. We decided that because of our special times we'd spent together along with people we had shared,were more than just memories that we'd always have.They had become vital part of our life 's existence. Along with that,and more,importantly it formed the unique essence of our forever long-lasting friendship that we had to the very end. Rose Schexnider
