“ So sad to hear of cousin Mary's passing. I remember going to stay at her and Larry's home and hanging out with my cousins Tiger, Craig and Cobey. Lot's of memories fishing for catfish in the creek by Mary's home and the family reunions we had in the park. Some of my best memories of my growing up. She was so loving and welcoming. Southern Hospitality! The Cajun Way! Love and miss my Cajun Family. You will be very missed cousin Mary. Lot's of Prayers and Love from your Texas cousin.

“ Mary and I were BFF since she came to Judice High School in the third grade. We country folks were amazed at her dancing skills. We were 65 students who graduated in May, 1965. One of my most memorable episodes with Mary was our trip to New Orleans on September 16, 1964 when we attended the Beatles concert at City Park. We stayed with Larry and Buddy in an apartment in the French Quarter. Both of them were dance instructors there. We parted ways while I went to Northeast (ULM) and she married Larry Daigle. However, we always got together every five years to plan the JHS 5-year reunions. My last visit with her was last summer with two other classmates, Carolyn Daigle Hulin and Linda Alleman Poirier (from Derry, NH). Don't know if she recognized us; but her infectious smile was definitely there. And she was sharing a room with my first cousin, Eva Dell. How ironical! Sending the family beaucoup love and prayers!
