“ Yvonne:

So sorry to hear of your husband's passing. Please know that you and your family will be mentioned in my prayers. Your daughter's tribute (Jill Guidry Pellissier) was so moving. The lovely way she expressed herself as a daughter and mother, as well as the child of a father who is no longer with her, brought me to tears while I read her words at work this morning. You are truly blessed to have the family you have.

Sincerely, Stephanie Chappuis

“Daddy, words alone cannot express how much I love you. Thank you for providing us with a safe and loving home. You were truly heaven sent! You were a great role model as a dad, son, and grandfather. The wonderful memories I have both in my childhood and as an adult are endless! Your personality was simply the best and you always knew that around you I couldn't stay mad or upset long. You would tell some silly story or joke and I was happy again in no time. (For instance, don't be mad, get glad, with glad handiwreaps--boy did you use that one a lot with me.) I am so glad that you got to hold me first when I was born. I always was Daddy's Little Girl! I am so thankful that you were there to see your baby have a baby of her own! Thank you for telling me again and again how much you loved me! Thank you for always believing in me even when at times I didn't believe in myself. Thank you for showing me how a man should treat a lady--you and mom's love was extraordinary. This pain that we are feeling now is very difficult to take, but we know you are at peace. Your physical body may be gone but your spirit and memories will live on forever. I won't let Ava ever forget you! Tonight at the funeral home, she asked for you. She said she missed you. For her only just making 2--you can see the love she had for you! "How much do you love me?" You would always ask. Our arms would then unfold as wide as the sky. That feeling will never change! As Ava would say, I love you big, big!! May you rest in peace, daddy!
